

If you'd like a physical, bookish copy of the content you just read, following is a piece of instruction from the creator of the content on how to do it!

This book comes in 3 parts:

1. Body text { > print this PDF file using a normal home printer with lightweight paper; glossy finish is preferred but work with what you have at hand; fold the pages}
2. Cover/Jacket { > print the first and last page from this PDF file on colored paper (YELLOW)}
3. Saddle stitching { > use a stapler that is either designed for saddle stitching or that can be opened to lay flat for tacking; staple once right in the middle of the spine}
